

OH THUNDER!

THE HEN WENT OUT
ALL SPICK-AND SPAN,
TO LOOK ABOUT
AND FIND A MAN.

YOU-SEE SHE WAS A LONESOME HEN.

SHE RAN INTO A HUNGRY BEAR,
WHO MADE HER STEW
AND ATE HER THERE.

THE HEN WAS LONESOME NE'ER AGAIN.

DESPONDENT—TRIES SUICIDE— NAMES PHYSICIAN

A young woman despondent over a love affair tried suicide last night in the Oxford hotel, across from the Union station. She swallowed mercury tablets. Her condition is serious.

In response to questions of the police she said she met a militia private, "Dr. Elfmann," in San Antonio. They were married, she said, but he repulsed her soon after.

At the home of Dr. H. E. Elfmann at 2125 Milwaukee av., a private in the First infantry, nothing was known of the woman. Dr. Elfmann could not be reached.

WILMETTE GIRL DRUGGED BY AUTO FLIRT

The auto flirt is at it again.

This time it was Florence Jensen, a Wilmette girl, who accepted a ride in a swell touring car. The found her unconscious by a roadside near Evanston last night. She had been drugged.

"I took a ride with him. When he got familiar I jumped from the car," the girl told the Evanston police. But I got back into the car on his promise to behave; soon I began to feel dizzy. That's all I remember."

—o—o—o—

Tag day for Chicago Children Benefit league, Oct. 18.